September 11th, 2017 (Minneapolis, MN) – Today, Gene Simmons (KISS Co-founder, bassist) and Ace Frehley (original lead guitarist of KISS) announced they will perform together on-stage, the first-time in over 16 years (since Frehley left KISS in 2001) at The Children Matter Benefit Concert to support the victims of Hurricane Harvey. Don Felder (former lead guitarist of The Eagles) and Cheap Trick are confirmed to perform, with headliner Gene Simmons Band (which Frehley and Felder will be sitting in with) at The Children Matter Benefit Concert on September 20th 2017 in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Over 10,000 expected to fill CHS Field Stadium in downtown St. Paul to witness rock history with once-in-a-lifetime collaborative performances between rock legends Gene Simmons, Ace Frehley, Don Felder and Cheap Trick as they turn up the volume for the victims of Hurricane Harvey.

ALL proceeds from The Children Matter Benefit Concert will be directed to the hurricane relief efforts of the nonprofit MATTER. The nonprofit works in partnership with on-ground relief organizations to source and ship the items needed most, such as: MATTERbox Meal Kits, sanitation and contamination prevention supplies and more to the children and families affected displaced by the hurricane.

Tickets starting under $60 and range up to $250 for VIP Meet & Greet.
